Islami Chhatra Shibir confce. opens

By A Staff Correspondent

The second annual conference of the Bangladesh Islami Chhatra Shibir began in Dacca on Saturday. The conference was inaugurated by Mr Justice Ruhul Islam, a judge of the Bangladesh Supreme Court.

The inaugural session was addressed among others by Mr. Justice A.K.M. Baker, Professor Syed Ali Ahsan Dr. Ashraf Siddiqui, Mr. Quamruzzaman, President of Bangladesh Islami Chhatra Shibir and Mr. Anwar Ibrahim of Malaysia.

The conference adopted several resolutions which included demand for a suitable education policy befitting the 87 percent Muslim population of the country.

In a resolution the conference urged the government to take steps to arrest the price hike of the essential commodities and expressed concern at the continued rise in crime rate including dacoity, robbery, murder and rape. It also called for banning obscene literature and other pornographic materials which had spread throughout the country.

The conference criticised the Government for signing agreement with U.S. Peace Corps
