

Rajshahi University

I read with keen interest the letter under the caption "Naogaon B M C. College" written by Mr. M. S. Rahman, Naogaon published in your daily, dated, Dacca, August 4, 1978.

Naogaon B M C. College was established in 1953. But, it is surprising to note, as is reported in Mr. M. S. Rahman's letter, that the Rajshahi University Calender, Vol. 1 1959 page 123 bears the date of its establishment in 1946.

Would the authority concerned of Rajshahi University please inform the readers how this great mistake was committed and why for so long it has not been corrected?
