Teachers Additional Benefit

Sir.—In the field of education the Government has taken an important step for uplifting seven hundred non-Govt. Secondary High Schools at thana Headquarters. This scheme is termed as Pilot scheme and great deal of development and improvement has been done concerning building construction, repairs, library laboratory etc. These schools are now to be classed with govt. high schools in so far as accommodation and educational facilities are concerned. Now, what is yet to be provided is additional benefit for the teachers of these schools as has been mentioned in the guidelines of the said scheme. It is therefore earnestly
