

Recreational allowance for non-gazetted Govt servants

Government have made "The Bangladesh Services (Recreation Allowance) Rules, 1979" granting all non-gazetted Government servants other than those employed in work-charged establishment or paid from the contingency fund or appointed on contract who have completed three years or more of service on July 1, 1979, a Recreation Allowance equal to one month's pay once in every three years for leave on rest and recreation. The Recreation Allowance will be in addition to the leave salary as admissible under the rules, it was learnt officially on Saturday.