Education plays important role in building nation

SIRAJGANJ, Aug 22: Minister for Post, Telecommunications, Housing and Public Works Mohammad Nasim said education is indispensable for building a healthy talent and creative nation, reports BSS.

He said this while inaugurating Amina Mansur Ali College at Harinathpur under Kazipur thana in the district yesterday.

The Minister said the educated people not only build their own fortune but also play an important role in building the nation.

Expansion of education in the society is the pledge of the present government he added.

"We have to remove the backwardness in education to change the economic situation of the country and to stand on our own feet face the challenges of the modern world," the Minister said.
