

14

Tk. 2.50 lakh reward for informers

The Dhaka Secondary and Higher Secondary Educational Board has announced a reward for giving first-hand information about the leakage of question papers of Secondary School Certificate (SSC) examinations and identification of the miscreants involved in it. reports BSS.

Contd. on page 8 col. 8

Reward

Contd. from page 1

A press release signed by Prof M Amanullah, acting chairman of Dhaka Secondary and Higher Secondary Educational Board, said Taka two lakh fifty thousand would be rewarded to the person or persons who will first inform the local police station or Dhaka Educational Board secretly the correct, specific and objective news to identify the miscreants who are involved with the leakage of question papers of SSC examinations.

The identity of the person or persons who will provide information will be kept secret, the press release said.

The reward will be applicable to all including the government and non-government employees, it added.

The press release said a vicious circle is active to leak the question papers of different subjects of the ongoing SSC examinations, which began on March 6.