

পৃষ্ঠা...

তারিখ 24 NOV 1991

পৃষ্ঠা... / ...কলাম... ৪...

First day of APSU strike at CU passes

CHITTAGONG, Nov 23 (UNB): The first day of the indefinite strike at Chittagong University called by All-Party Student Unity (APSU) passed off peacefully today, campus sources said.

The APSU called for the strike protesting the alleged attack by Islami Chhatra Shibir on the Vice
Last Page Col. 2

First day of

Contd. from Page 1

Chancellor's residence recently.

Assistant Proctor of the University Prof Mohammad Ali Chowdhury told UNB no untoward incident occurred in the campus and MA first part examinations were held peacefully.

The examination was earlier scheduled to begin Thursday but was postponed due to a strike also enforced by the APSU on Wednesday and Thursday in protest of the Shibir attack on the VC's residence.

Buses and the shuttle train between the University and the city did not ply as APSU supporters put up barricades at the University gate number 1 and 2.

Meanwhile, Jatiyatabadi Shikkhak Parishad discussed the campus situation at a meeting held at JM Sen Hall with former MP and BNP leader Rafiquallah Chowdhury in the chair.

127