Student leaders abandon meet with DU VC

Staff Reporter

A meeting between the Dhaka University Vice-chancellor and the leaders of different student organisations to fix the date of next DUCSU election was abandoned yesterday.

The student leaders said they boycotted the meeting as the representatives of Islami Chhatra Shibir were present there.

But a DU press release claimed the meeting was held with the V.C. Prof Abdul Mannan in the chair and he said that the authorities were prepared to hold the election in the first week of March as earlier proposed.

The press release further claimed the meeting also decided to convene another meeting on January 30 at 8.30 pm to hold discussion between the authorities and the student leaders on the issue of the election date.
