DU teachers to continue boycott

DU Correspondent

Teachers of Dhaka University have decided to continue to boycott classes till the authorities take effective steps to contain campus violence.

The decision was taken at an emergency general meeting of Dhaka University Teachers Association (DUTA) held with Dr Anwarullah Chowdhury in the chair yesterday (Saturday).

The meeting discussed in detail the campus situation and felt that a congenial atmosphere was yet to be restored.

The teachers have been boycotting classes since October 27 following a violent clash between two rival student organisations that left two students, one outsider and a street urchin killed. They demanded safety of teachers and students on the campus.
