NARSINGDI, Aug. 16:—A meeting on the mass literacy programme was held at the Battali Madrassah under Nazarpur Union on Narsingdi thana recently.

Mr. M. A. Quasem, SDO Narsingdi, attended the meeting as chief guest and called upon the people to play a vital role in implementing the mass literacy programme, which could save the nation from the curse of illiteracy.

The local people also assured that they would take initiative in setting up adult education centres to educate the illiterate people to make the programme a success in the area.
