

016

Distribution of books for primary school begins

The Primary Education Directorate on Saturday started free distribution of books for the primary schools of the country for 1989 under the Universal

Contd. on page 8, col. 6

Primary schools

Contd. from page 1

Primary Education Programme, reports BSS.

A press release said the Directorate would distribute the One crore 41 lakh 48 thousand sets of books among the students to ensure availability of books at the beginning of the new year.

The programme is being carried out by the National Education and Curriculum Text Book Board in cooperation with the Bangladesh Road Transport Corporation.