A Correspondent

GOPALGANJ, Jan. 16:—The school text-books from class VI to class X are not sold without note-books in all upazilas of the district, it is alleged. There are 60 book shops in all upazilas of the district.

As a result, a student has to spend Taka 300 to Taka 400 instead of Taka 80 to Taka 100 for a set of books.

On the other hand, note books supplied by the book shops are below the standard and as such students are facing a lot of trouble to buy text-books.

If anybody wants to buy only text-books the shop-keepers refused to sell books on the plea that no such text-books are available in their stocks.

It may be mentioned here that sale of note-books were strictly prohibited by the governments.

The authority concern should takes necessary measures to stop such malpractice.
