NOTE-BOOKS SEIZED

COMILLA, July 3: Police recovered a huge quantity of note books of primary and secondary levels from a house near the town here Saturday, reports UNB.

Acting on a tip, police raided the house and arrested Mafizul Islam Niloo in this connection. Following his confessional statement police recovered 1400 books from Ratna Press at Chowdhury Market in the town.

Publishing of note books upto class seven is banned in the country to remove the dependency of the students from the prepared notes. But a section of unscrupulous traders are making brisk business here by publishing note books abundantly.
