

Biswas for more varsities in country

President Abdur Rahman Biswas laid emphasis on establishing more universities in the country to meet the growing need of the students and ensuring the onward march of the nation unhindered, reports UNB.

Biswas was talking to a delegation of teachers of the university who called on him at Bangabhaban Sunday.

The president who is also the Vice Chancellor of Islamic University, Chittagong, stressed much on qualitative and value-based education.

Modern knowledge and technology have become a must for us to go along with the competitive world, Biswas said adding that Islamic education which flourished in the medieval period to its height had the combination of science, religion and moral values.

Led by Project Director of the university Dr Mohammad Loqman led the delegation members included Dr Shabbir Ahmed, Alhaj Md Badiul Alam, Prof Abu Baker Rafiq and Md Enayetullah Patwari.

Later, a delegation of the members of Muktagacha press club led by its general secretary FMA Salam also called on the president at Bangabhaban.

Talking to them the president said that the journalist community should contribute through their writings for the well-being of the people.

The delegation members pointed out some local problems and requested him for taking necessary steps in this regard.