Dhaka Board SSC results today

--Results of SSC examinations of 1995 under the Dhaka Education Board will be published today (Tuesday) from the respective examination centres simultaneously, reports BSS.

The headmasters or headmistresses of all schools can collect the results of their schools from the "Centre Secretary" of their respective centres after the publication of the results, an official handout said.

The examinees have been advised to collect their results from their respective examination centres or schools.

The handout said the results of the current year's SSC examinations will not be available with the Education Board, Education Ministry or newspaper offices.
