

61

500 answer scripts of HSC exam under RB lost

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, June 6:—Five hundred answer scripts of Bengali First Paper of Higher Secondary Certificate (HSC) examination under Rajshahi Education Board were lost from Rajshahi Bus terminal on Thursday evening.

Police sources said, Shahadev Kumar Pramanik, Lecturer of Sham-sul Haque College of Gaibandha had received five hundred answer scripts of Bengali First Paper from Rajshahi Education Board for examination. At about 4 pm he went to Rajshahi bus terminal with those answer scripts and kept the gunny bag containing the scripts in front of a shop requesting the shop owner to take care of the bag until he returned from completing the nature's call. After returning Shahadev found the bag with answer scripts missing.

Shahadev filed a complaint with Boalia thana in this connection. Police arrested the shop owner Ibrahim from his shop in this connection. However, Ibrahim denied that any body kept any bag with answer scripts in front of his shop.

The lost answer scripts have not yet been recovered till the writing of this report.