

Lecturer gets 120 days' detention for forging HSC answer scripts

A teacher of Sadat University College has been placed under 120-day detention in jail for forging HSC examination answer papers by taking huge bribe from the examinees, reports UNB.

Ilias Ahmed, a Lecturer of English of the college in Karatia and examiner, was arrested red-handed while some candidates were writing answer papers at his city house on Wednesday night.

He was later produced before the court that sent him to Dhaka Central Jail after serving a detention order for three months.

The forgery was detected following an anonymous letter to Home Minister Rafiqul Islam who immediately asked Special Branch to look into the matter.

Mahbub Hossain, an additional SP of the city SB, had followed the teacher, Ilias Ahmed, for last several days and caught him while committing the crime once again.

Some examinees who were writing on the scripts of English second paper, however, managed to flee the teacher's house at 61 Senpara Parbata, in Mirpur during the police operation at night.

Police said the teacher took Tk 3,000 to Tk 7,000 from each of the 350 examinees of the college as bribe. He received 900 scripts to examine.

Police seized some 500 scripts from his house.
