World Literacy Day observed in Barguna

From Our Correspondent

BARGUNA, Sept 12: 'World Literacy Day' was observed at Barguna district through different programmes.

On the occasion a big procession was brought out by various social organisations. The processionists parade main streets of the town carrying colourful festoons, placards and posters.

A discussion meeting was organised by district administration at Barguna Town Hall. Deputy Commissioner, Barguna, Md Tofazzol Hossain attended the meeting as chief guest. The meeting was presided over by Abdul Halim Bacchu and speaking on the occasion Advocate Shajahan Miah, Abdul Alim Himu and Dilip Kumar Dey.

Speaking on the occasion Md Tofazzol Hossain said that, education is an inalienable human right. He said, in a developing country like Bangladesh with low rate of literacy its importance cannot be overemphasised.

A cultural function was held at the same place on the significance of the day. Cultural function organised by Sammlito Sanscritic Jot, Barguna.
