JU College 1st paper (Hons) exam postponed

- Dhaka University authorities have postponed the First Paper Honours examination (traditional) of the year 1986 of the students of Jagannath University College scheduled to be held today (Sunday) at Dhaka College and Teachers Training College centres, reports BSS.

An announcement of the Dhaka University said on Saturday night that the Honours examinations of other students scheduled for today (Sunday) in these two as well as in other centres will, however, be held as usual.

It said the new date for the postponed examination for the students of Jagannath University College will be announced later.
