The Bangladesh Times

可知 OB JUN 1988

062

HSC exam begins
Thursday

People urged to help maintain law and order

By A Staff Reporter

Education Minister Sheikh Shahidul Islam on Monday urged the people of all strata of the society to actively help the administration to maintain law and order during the ensuing HSC examinations beginning on Thursday.

Addressing a news conference at the Ministry's conference room he particularly appealed to the organisations of students, teachers, guardians to help stop adoption of unfair means at the examinations.

A total of 3,22,193 candidates including about 89,000 girls are appearing at the HSC (Higher Secondary Certificate). Confd. on page 8 eci. 7 examinations under the four teducation Boards from 520 centres including three overseas centres, the Minister said.

HSC exams

Contd from page 1

Of the total candidates 95,020 are from Dhaka Board, 74,111 from Comilla Board, 65,378 from Jessore Board and 87,674 from Rajshahi Board.

The Education Minister said that adoption of unfair means in examinations not only created aversion among students towards the pursuit of knowledge but also led to overall social degradation.

He deplored the tendency of copying in the examination hall, which was more prevalent in the rural areas, and in the recent past untoward incidents took place at some centres outside upazila headquarters.

He said the adoption of unfair means also hurt the interests of the talented and good students, and this situation could never welcomed. The Government did not permit more than one examination centre at the upazila level due to this, he said.

Sheikh Shahid said that arrangement had been made to hold the ensuing HSC examinations properly and peacefully with active cooperation of the district and the upazila administrations.

Listing a number of decisions taken to stop adoption of unfair means in the examination hall, the Minister, however, said that the number of mem. bers of the law enforcing agen. cies put on examination duties was limited compared to the inumber of students, and hence the cooperation of the people of all strata was necessary for conducting the examinations properly and peacefully, The Education Minister recalled that during the last Sec condary School Certificate (SSC) examination organisa. tions of students, teachers and guardians and come people's organisations had lent their active support to the administration to check the unfair. practice.

16