Action against 1123 for adopting unfair means in SSC Exam.

Our Correspondent

CHANDPUR, Dec. 6:—Disciplinary actions have been taken against 1123 examinees of S.S.C. Examinations, 1988 of Comilla Board for adopting unfair means in the last S.S.C. Examination.

The Discipline Committee of the Board in a recent meeting approved the punishments of the examinees after scanning the cases. The punishment ranging from cancellation of examinations of 1988 to 1990. The examination of 624 examinees has been cancelled for the examination of 1988. Four hundred twenty-seven candidates have been debarred from appearing at the examination of 1989. Eleven examinees have been debarred from appearing at the examination upto 1999.

70 expelled in Barguna

A report from Barguna adds: A total of 70 examinees were expelled in 2 centres and 1 sub-centre of BA (Pass) Examination for adopting unfair means upto December 2.

Of them, 35 were expelled from Amtali centre, 20 were from Barguna centre and 15 from Betagi sub-centre.

It may be pointed out here that the adoption of unfair means in Amtali examination hall is an open secret.
