

০৭
৭২৩

9 arrested on the spot

Degree exam in teachers home !

Staff Reporter

COMILLA, February 7 : Police yesterday arrested Vice Principal of Lalmatia College and two other teachers of Ajit Guha College and Poyalgachha College in Comilla for their alleged involvement in supplying the B A examinations answer script to a examinee illegally. They were caught red handed from the spot while helping the examinee.

On secret information, a special squad of Kotwali police raided the Nazrul Parishad Bhavan in the town when Faujia Parveen an examinee of Nimsar College, was found copying on an answer script of Social Welfare second paper.

Police also arrested Faujia Parveen along with her brother in-law Tajul Islam from the spot yesterday.

When contacted, police said that they had in this connection arrested three more persons who were said to be employees of the office of the Controller of Examinations of Chittagong University.

According to Kotwali police, the arrested Vice Principal and the two other college teachers are Mr Kanan Saha, Prof Abul Bashar and Prof Raihanuddin respectively. Prof Raihanuddin used to reside at Nazrul Parishad Bhavan for several years.

Police said that the said teacher had been continuing these misdeeds for a long time in exchange of money.