

Monday, September 16, 1991

11 pc pass CU BSc exams

CHITTAGONG, Sept 15 (BSS): Four hundred seventeen candidates passed the B.Sc (Pass) examination-1990 out of a total of 3763 held under the University of Chittagong. The percentage of pass is a little over 11, according to the results announced by the university here today.

Only one candidate secured first division, 108 second division and 308 third division.

A total of 199 candidates appeared at the supplementary B.Sc (Pass) examination-1990 and of them 93 passed, percentage being 46.7.

The highest number of candidates passed from Chandpur Government College with 28.6 per cent. 318 students appeared at the examination from this college of whom 91 came out successful. The Government Women's College, Comilla, secured second position with 28.5 percent pass. Ten candidates passed out of the total of 35 from this college.

No candidate passed out of the six colleges under the university. The colleges are Chittagong Government Women's College, Kuwaish-Burishar, Sheikh Muhammad College, Rangamati Government College, Lakhmipur Government College, Ramganj Government College and Khalifa Rahman Degree College.

১৭