

Allegations of malpractices in HSC exams

A Sun Report

Md Anisur Rahman, Chairman of the English Department of the Jagannath University College and father of Nahid Ibne Rahman who stood second in the HSC Examination under the Dhaka Board alleged that there had been irregularities and malpractice in examining the answer scripts.

Mr Anisur Rahman at a press conference yesterday at the Jatiya Press Club demanded re-examination of the answer scripts of his son and that of who stood first in the examinations.

He said that he had submitted a written complaint to the Secretary of the Ministry of Education for a review of the result.

The total marks scored by Nahid Ibne Rahman was less than that of the candidate who stood
