Naogaon College closed sine die

NAOGAON, Apr 24:—Naogaon University College was closed sine die today (Saturday) following an untoward incident centering admission in the first year BA honours class, reports UNB.

Witnesses said a group of unruly students attacked the office of the Principal and ransacked it in the morning when two student groups demonstrated separately in the campus.

College units of Bangladesh Chhatra League and Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal separately brought out procession protesting against the alleged irregularities in the admission.

Unruly students also physically assault the Principal, said the college sources.

After the incident, the authorities in an emergency meeting closed the college for indefinite period.
