

Tension grips DU campus as JCD, BCL workers clash

DU Correspondent

Tension gripped the Dhaka University campus as supporters of the ruling party-backed Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) and pro-Awami League Chhatra League (A-A) yesterday clashed (Thursday) afternoon. None was however, injured.

At least 15 shots were fired during the clash and police threw at least 25 rounds of tear gas shells, to bring the situation under control. Later, police raided Jahurul Haq Hall a stronghold of Chhatra League (A-A). No arms could be recovered from the hall.

Last Page Col. 8

Tension grips DU

Contd. from Page 1

The clash brokeout when Chhatra League (A-A) activists allegedly attacked JCD workers in front of Arts Building and fired three rounds.

The clash then spread to the nearby Jahurul Haq and Mohsin Hall areas.

Later, police took position there and threw tear gas shells.

146