RAJSHAHI, July 5:—Rajshahi University authorities today imposed ban on all political activities in the RU campus till July 22 in view of deteriorating law and order situation.

The announcement of ban came following a series of protest processions by the activists of All Party Student Unity (APSU) in the campus today. The processionists chanted slogan demanding immediate and unconditional release of their arrested leaders.

The processionists held a rally at the west square of the Administrative Building in the afternoon in support of their demand. Presided over by Bangladesh Student Union

RU Unit President Mr. Alamgir Hussain, the rally was addressed by Laibuddin Lablu and Ahmedul Kabir.

Meanwhile, several processions were also brought out by the supporters of APSU in the city demanding the release of the arrested leaders. Later on the processionists assembled in front of the Rajshahi Press Club and held a brief rally. APSU leaders called upon the students of RU to observe strike on Tuesday.

Several contingents of riot police have been deployed in the campus to maintain law and order situation. A tense situation has been prevailing in the campus.
