CU students observe strike

Chittagong Office

CHITTAGONG, June 26:—The students at Chittagong University today observed a complete strike in protest against the enhancement of University examination and certificate fees.

The All Party Students Unity of Chittagong University gave this strike call that jeopardized the academic life.

The students boycotted their classes during the strike period. They also brought out a number of processions and held protest meetings on the campus. However, there was no untoward incident.

Among the speakers at the protest meetings were CUCSU General Secretary Azimuddin Ahmed, Selim Reza Shawraf, Mahbubur Rahman, Saifuddin Khaled Khasru, Mohammad Shahjahan, Asaduzzaman Dilip and Mujibur Rahman.

The CUCSU General Secretary Azimuddin Ahmed in his speech alleged that Chittagong University enhanced different fees by one hundred per cent pushing up the education cost beyond the reach of common students. He demanded of the authority for revoking this decision to bring down the cost of education.
