The leaders of Bangladesh Chhatra League and Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal on Wednesday reached a consensus that they would not do anything that might hamper the congenial atmosphere of Dhaka University campus.

The Vice-Chancellor of the University Prof. A.K. Azad Chowdhury personally took the initiative to help the leaders of the two student organisations reach a consensus. He talked to the leaders of the BCL and JCD separately and brought them to the Madhu's Canteen in the noon. The student leaders shared sweets and agreed to maintain normalcy in the campus. Proctor of the University Dr. Nur Un Nabi was present.
