

Implementation of eight-point accord discussed DU halls to be evacuated Tuesday

Most of the residential halls of Dhaka University will be evacuated on Tuesday for rehabilitating genuine students in their respective dormitories by the day, reports UNB.

The decision was taken at an important meeting of the University Paribesh Parishad at Senate Hall on the campus on Saturday.

The meeting, presided over by DU Vice-Chancellor Prof AK Azad Chowdhury, also decided to strengthen implementation of an eight-point agreement between authorities and student bodies reached earlier from Sunday.

Saturday Paribesh Parishad meeting was scheduled for discussion of the latest situation of the university plagued by showdowns between the activists of dominant student bodies. According to decisions, all the portraits made at the campus with political motivation, will be obliterated on Sunday morning.

Leaders of different student organisations will provide lists of their displaced supporters who were not residing in their respective halls due to hostility of student politics. Authorities will verify the list today (Monday).

It is on Tuesday when all the residential halls, except three female dormitories and Suryasen and Jagannath halls, will be vacated and students be brought back there one after another under direct supervision of the authorities in presence of student leader. Students will be allowed to enter their halls only after checking identity cards.

According to the process, Kabi Jasimuddin, Bangabandhu and Ziaur Rahman halls will be evacuated at 9.30 am and students will enter their halls by 11.30 am.

The process will be applicable for Mahsin Hall and AF

Rahman Hall between 11 am to 12 pm, Shahidullah and Fazlul Haq halls 12 pm to 1.30 pm and for SM Hall and Jahurul Haq halls from 3 pm to 4 pm.

Academic activities, as classes, will not be held on the day (Tuesday) due to the whole process while other official activities be held as usual.

For this, a meeting of the house tutors has been scheduled for Sunday at 6 pm at the Senate Room.

Among others, Shahiduddin Chowdhury Annie, Habib-un-Nabi Sohel, Shahabuddin Laltu and Selimuzzaman Selim of JCD, Enamul Haq Shamim, Ishaq Ali Khan Parina, Abdul Wadud Khokon and Bahadur Bepari of BCL attended Saturday meeting.
