Fresh clash: BCL calls two-day strike at IU

KUSHTIA, Aug 10: At least 10 people, including a policeman, were injured in sporadic clashes in the town today, reports UNB.

Police said the violence erupted when the supporters of BCL brought out processions in the town and the Islamic University campus blaming Chhatra Shibir for the death of Khurshid Hasan Mamun.

Mamun, sports secretary of the BCL local unit, was killed in a road accident at Bittipara Bazar in Sadar thana Sunday.

During today's clashes, at least 25 homemade bombs and crackers were exploded in the town, leaving 10 people, including constable Akbar Ali, injured.

Of the injured, Iftekharuddin Ahmed, an official of Delta Life Insurance, was admitted to Sadar Hospital in a critical condition.

Meanwhile, the BCL activists submitted a memorandum.

They also called a two-day strike at the university from tomorrow to protest the killing.

In a statement, Chhatra Shibir denied the allegation and demanded enquiry into the incident.
