50

5,000 pieces of computers to be needed for secondary edn

Initially about 5,000 PCs will be required for introduction of computer education at the secondary level, reports UNB.

The meeting discussed progress of implementation of Ruppur Atomic Energy Centre, Nayarhat Leather Laboratory and Bangladesh Computer Council projects.

Presided over by committee chairman Dr HBM Iqbal, the meeting was attended by Science & Technology Minister Noor Uddin Khan, Khan Tipu Sultan, Begum Nargis Ara Haq, Tahura Ali, Dr Mohammad Asadur Rahman and Abdul Aleem.