Degree (Pass) Exam results today

By DU Correspondent

The results of Degree (Pass) and Certificate Course Examinations of 1998 under the National University will be published at 4 pm today, said a press release yesterday.

The results will be published simultaneously from all the examination centres of the country.

Necessary arrangements have been made to publish the results.

The students have been asked to collect results from their respective colleges or examination centres. Results will not be available at the National University office, the press release added.
