JS body meet on reported massive copying in SSC exams held

Amid press reports on massive copying and other corrupt means in the ongoing SSC examinations, the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Education Ministry on Sunday discussed ways of stopping the rot, reports UNB.

In a meeting the committee stressed "creating mass awareness against copying apart from taking stringent measures against the unfair means".

A sub-committee formed earlier to recommend ways of preventing copying was told to complete its tasks immediately and submit the report along with the recommendations.

The meeting urged the opposition parliamentarians to join parliament sessions for full-dress discussions on introducing an effective Education Policy for the nation.

Held at the Parliament Bhaban with committee chairman Nurul Islam Nahid in the chair, the meeting also recommended the authorities concerned to immedi-
