10 injured in
RU BCL clash

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, Aug 13:—At least 10 students were injured in a clash that occurred between two factions of Rajshahi University unit of Pro-AL Bangladesh Chhatra League at the campus of RU following capturing a room of Shaheed Ziaur Rahman Hall of the university this afternoon.

RU campus sources said that some activists of BCL Kamal group went to the hall and entered into the Room No-207 and assaulted Pintu (24) who belongs to another group and also asked him to leave the room immediately.

Hearing the news of the incident the workers of Pintu group became furious and attacked the workers of Kamal group that led to a violent clash between them which continued for about an hour.

Both the warring groups used fire arms, cocktails and bombs during the chase and counter-chase which created severe panic among the general students of the campus.

Meanwhile, the ongoing deadlock which created following the ousting of JCD workers from all the RU residential halls by the activists of Islami Chhatra Shibir has not yet been dissolved, RU sources said.
