Students clash with police: 50 injured at Rangpur

RANGPUR, July 24:—A group of students demanding upgrading Carmichael College at full-fledged university clashed with the police today that left about 50 injured including female students and police, reports UNB.

The incident took place when Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina laid the foundation of Rangpur Science and Technology University at the premises of Carmichael University College this morning.

The government has a plan to set up 12 such universities at phases to promote science and technical education.

The authorities have acquired 75 acres of the Carmichael College. (See Page 16, Col. 5) lage for the proposed Rangpur Science and Technology University.

The angry students clashed with the police after the Prime Minister left the spot laying the foundation stone of the university.

The police resorted to lathi-charge, fired tear gas shells and rubber bullets to disperse the unruly students who were shouting slogans and pelting stones. They chased each other, said witnesses.

The students wanted to submit a memorandum to the Prime Minister. But they were kept far away from the college compound where the Prime Minister was laying the foundation stone of the proposed University.
