

Students' confce on global economy from Feb 1

Staff Correspondent

A seven-day international students' conference on global economy will be held in Dhaka from February 1 to 7 organised by AIESEC (a French acronym for the International Association of Students in Economics and Management), a student association based in the Netherlands.

Some 200 students in economics from about 15 countries are expected to participate in the conference titled "Millennium Conference," first of its kind in the country.

Addressing a press briefing on the ensuring Millennium Conference at the National Press Club on Wednesday, the President of AIESEC, Bangladesh Fahad M Karim said the main objective of the conference was to discuss and exchanges views on the prospects and problems of the entrepreneurship in the 21st century. The conference would also highlight the Bangladesh prospects and role in global trade and business in the coming century, he said.

Besides, he said that the conference would help exchange views among the participants on their respective culture and economy.
