

School admission procedure

The authorities have divided the boys' schools of the Dhaka metropolis into four zones while the girls' schools into two zones with a view to holding the admission tests properly and to avoid admission complications.

A government handout said yesterday that one admission seeker would be able to apply in one zone.

Application forms will be distributed from January 1 to January 7, while the admission tests for all the six zones will be held on January 14.