

MBBS final exam begins today

The MBBS Final Examination in four medical colleges affiliated with Dhaka University begins today Tuesday amid tight security, reports UNB.

Police have been posted in the premises of Dhaka, Mymensingh, Sir Salimullah and Barisal Medical Colleges at the request of the University authority following students threat to disrupt the examination.

Students recently ransacked Principal's office at Dhaka Medical College in protest against the authority's decision to hold the examination on the scheduled date.