

Rangpur Medical College closed

From Our Correspondent

RANGPUR, April 13: Rangpur Medical College was closed today and all the students were asked to vacate the hostel within one pm.

It was decided at an emergency meeting of the Academic Contd. on page 8 col. 7

Rangpur

Contd. from page 1

Council today following an untoward incident at the Administrative building.

The incident followed when the Principal of the college barred seven third-year students from appearing at the examination for being non-collegiate.

A group of students met the Principal to discuss the problem. At one stage they attacked him and ransacked the rooms of the Administrative Building.