

Prof Rahman made WHO honorary member

Prof Mujibur Rahman, Prof of Blood Transfusion, Institute of Post-Graduate Medicine and Research has been appointed an honorary member of the World Health Organisation Expert Advisory Panel on Human Blood Products and Related Substances in recognition of his service in this field.

He is the only person in Bangladesh who has a doctorate in Blood Transfusion. He is an active member of the International Society of Blood Transfusion from Bangladesh.