to the Barisal town with police protection.

The district administration arranged police protection upon the request of a group of students to provide security to the students.

The clash ensued centering around sports at the college play ground held last Saturday and later turned into a political dispute between the supporters of the Central Students Action Committee and Islami Chhatra Shibir. Later Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal sided with the Shibir.

Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal also brought out procession in the town demanding the authorities to stop the terrorism in the educational institutions and also to reopen the college. They also participated in a procession brought out by Shibir where two workers of the Chhatra Dal were wounded in the clash when the supporters of the Central Students Action Committee obstructed them in front of the Press Club.
