

Mathematical, physical research centre at Ctg varsity

CHITTAGONG : The first meeting of the newly-established Governing Body of the Centre for Research on Mathematical and Physical Sciences of Chittagong University was held recently with the Vice-Chancellor of the University Prof Alamgir Muhammad Serajuddin in the chair. The Vice-Chancellor of Jahangirnagar University Prof Kazi Saleh Ahmed, Prof Harunur Rashid of Dhaka University, Prof A K S Ahmed, Prof Jamal Nazrul Islam, Director of the Centre, Prof Fazlee Hussain and Dean of the Faculty of Science, Chittagong University Prof M. Nurul Islam were present on the occasion. Decisions on the budget, creation of posts, research project, and holding of international conference and workshop under the aegis of the Centre were taken in the meeting. This Centre has been established with the financial assistance of Bangladesh Government for progressive research. This sort of research centre is the first of its kind in Bangladesh, says a press release of Chittagong University.

LAW AND WOMEN

Under the auspices of Chittagong University Sikkhak Gabeshana Parishad a seminar was held recently at the Arts Gallery on Muslim Law, society and women's rights. This seminar was presided over by the President of Sikkhak Gabeshana Parishad Mr Imran Hysain. The Vice-Chancellor of the University of Chittagong Prof Serajuddin was the main speaker.

Vice-Chancellor Prof. Alamgir Md Serajuddin gave a graphical description of the spectrum of Muslim Law and its impact on the society plus the rights of women. He also threw light on the conservation of rights of Muslim women by the judiciary of this sub-continent.

He stressed the importance of Ijtihad by the Muslim scholars so that things could suit the needs and genius of Muslim people particularly the rights of Muslim women. The meeting ended after discussion by other teachers, namely, Prof Moinuddin Ahmed Khan, Mr Wahidur Rahman, Dr Sharfuddin, Dr Shabbir Ahmed, Mr Abdun Noor, Dr Hafizullah Khan, Mr Badiur Rahman and Dr M Enamul Hoque. The seminar was conducted by the General Secretary of Gabeshana Parishad, Mr Mohammad Ali Azadi.

MICRO-COMPUTER

Under the auspices of Faculty of Science of Chittagong University, a seminar on 'Microcomputer and its usages' was held at the Science Faculty Gallery recently. Prof M Nurul Islam, Dean of the Faculty of Science, Chittagong University was the main speaker.

ker. Prof Jamal Nazrul Islam, Director of the Centre for Research on Mathematical and Physical Sciences also spoke on the occasion.

RECEPTION

The Department of Philosophy, Chittagong University arranged a reception and farewell meeting for the newly-inducted Chairman of the Department Mr Md Afsar Ali and the outgoing-Chairman Mr A N M. Wahidur Rahman. In this reception gathering Dr Md Shahjehan of the Department of Philosophy presided. This function was divided into two sections and the second session was a reception for the newly-inducted students of Preliminary Masters Degree Class and fresh entrants of First Year Degree Honours Class. Chief guest, on the second session was the Dean of the Faculty of Arts, Chittagong University Mr Abdul Waseh.