Sangram Parishad students resume classes at CU

Chittagong Bureau

CHITTAGONG, Aug 19 : The Chittagong University unit of Chhatra Sangram Parishad (CSP) yesterday agreed to allow its supporters and others to return to classes as the authorities pledged to consider its demands by September 3.

The students of the University at the call of the CSP, had been abstaining from classes since August 16 to protest violence on the campus and to press for several demands including ouster from the University of certain Chhatra Shibir workers whom the CSP blamed for recent clashes.

The suspension of the strike was announced after the Vice Chancellor of the university and the leaders of the parishad reached an agreement at the end of the second round of talks yesterday. Parishad leaders, however, said the students would begin to abstain from classes from September 4 again if their demands were not met by the deadline.

Meanwhile, 237 students of the university in a joint statement yesterday demanded resignation of the VC for his alleged inability to restore peace and discipline on the campus.
