

Symposium on anniversary of UNESCO

United Nations Association of Bangladesh (UNAB) organised a symposium in Dhaka on Wednesday, marking the 52nd Anniversary of UNESCO, says UNB.

Vice Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof AK Azad Chowdhury attended the function as chief guest while UNESCO Country Representative Ansar Ali Khan presented the keynote paper.

In his paper, the UNESCO Country Representative said UNESCO stands for peace, justice, equality, freedom and solidarity for the people.

He said UNESCO has made significant contributions in supporting government efforts in education, especially the Education for All programme, science and technology, culture and communications.

Chaired by UNAB President Prof Salahuddin Ahmed, the function was addressed, among others, by its Secretary General Syed Ahmed Hosain, prominent geologist Prof Abu Bakar and Dr AAMS Arefin Siddique.
