

Call to boycott classes at CU from today

From CU Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, Aug 6: Anti-Communal Students Forum (ACSF) called a two-day class boycott programme at the Chittagong University from tomorrow to press home its three-point demand, including resumption of bus service for the students.

The programme was announced during a day-long siege programme on the campus yesterday enforced by ACSF.

The two other demands are renovation of rail trucks and trial of the persons involved in all killings on the campus. The university authorities at a meeting recently decided to stop bus service due to financial loss. The decision came into effect from August 1.
