being taken by the University Authorities prior to the reopening of the University for maintaining continued congenial academic atmosphere and also to keep it free of arms and violence.

They informed the President the steps taken by the University for holding the old accumulated examinations causing session jam by March next year. They also informed him that the certificates of degrees lying with the university for about last two decades will be given to the recipients through their respective departments by special arrangements.

The President assured the University authorities of all possible support and cooperation in maintaining the university as the temple of learning and regaining its past glory as the Oxford of the East. Deputy Prime Minister Prof. M. A. Matin and Education Minister Mahbubur Rahman were present.
