Help establish rule of law in DU campus

By Our D. U. Correspondent

Prof. Abdul Mannan, Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University on Sunday sought cooperation of the lawyers of the country in establishing rule of law on D. U. campus.

He was addressing the conference of Bangladesh Ain Samity (Law Association) at Dhaka University as the chief guest. Held at the Science Annexe building premises of Dhaka University, the function was presided over by Mr. Abdullah Mahmood Hasan, President of the Association.

The function was addressed, among others, by Mr. M. Nurul Haq, Chairman of Law

Department and Mr. K. A. A. Quamruddin, former Dean of Law Faculty, Dhaka University.

Prof. Mannan called upon all concerned to uphold the past glorious roles of Dhaka University in different movements of the country. Conspiracy was being hatched to destroy the country's education system, he said and called upon all to resist it.

"We must maintain the academic standard of Dhaka University, otherwise the backbone of the nation will be shattered," the Vice-Chancellor observed.

He also urged the lawyers to break down the psychological strength of the terrorists and said that arms would not be needed in doing that.
