Dhaka Varsity incident

Education Ministry version

The Education Ministry in a handout on Monday night said that when Mrs Hasna Moudud a Member of Jatiya Sangsad and member of Dhaka University Senate reached the University campus at about 3.40 p.m. on Monday to participate in the Senate meeting a group of unruly students gheraded her and snatched her purse. The students beat up the driver of her car and also snatched the car key. They damaged the car and set it on fire, reports BSS.

The handout said such a state of anarchy at Dhaka University campus, the highest seat of learning was unfortunate and regrettable. Such a harassment to a senate member specially the woman member at the university senate meeting was highly disgusting. The students who would be the future leader of the country and the nation after taking highest education from the university had harassed an honourable member of Jatiya Sangsad who is also a senate member of their university and a one-time teacher.

The Education Ministry version said this incident was alarming specially as it had happened in presence of some university teachers. It was hoped that such incident would not be repeated in future, because everyone wants that healthy and proper educational atmosphere should prevail all educational institutions and worthy citizens should come out from there. It was also expected that the university authorities would give exemplary punishment to those responsible for the incident.
