Scholarship after Zainul Abedin instituted in DU

A scholarship fund named "Shilpacharya Zaimul Abedin Scholarship Fund" has been instituted in the University of Dhaka. Begum Jahanara Abedin, widow of Shilpacharya Zaimul Abedin handed over a cheque for Taka one lakh for the purpose to Vice-Chancellor Prof Abdul Mannan on December 31.

The object of setting up this fund is to encourage higher education in fine arts in Dhaka

University.

In his brief speech, Vice-Chancellor Prof Abdul Mannan thanked Mrs. Abedin and other members of her family for this generous donation.

Others who were present on the occasion were: Moynul Abedin, youngest son of Shilpacharya Joynul Abedin; Prof. Abdullah Farouk, treasurer of the university; Quazi Bohaduddin Ahmed, convenor of the Dhaka University Trust Fund sub-committee; the Director and the teachers of the Institute of Fine Arts and senior officials of the University.

Out of the income of the fund, one scholarship of Tk. 400 (four hundred) per month for a period of two years will be awarded to a meritorious student each year at the post-graduate level (Master of Fine Arts) course.
